INTERNAL COMPLAINT COMMITTEE

The institution has established an Internal Complaint Cell (ICC) to support the smooth functioning of academic and infrastructural facilities and to maintain a student-centric learning environment. The ICC functions as a facilitative body that oversees matters related to classroom infrastructure, teaching–learning support systems, ICT facilities such as projectors and smart classrooms, laboratories, library services, washrooms, drinking water facilities, cleanliness, and other campus amenities. The cell ensures systematic monitoring and coordination with concerned academic departments and administrative sections for the upkeep and effective utilization of institutional resources.
